Transitioning from school to summer vacation

- Allow more free time for kids and reduce the amount of structured academic learning
- Provide children with plenty of opportunities for exploratory learning
- Continue to have a schedule, but allow for more flexibility
- Take time for children to visit with friends by setting up play dates
- Although you might feel overwhelmed by life right now, remember to inspire education by getting involved with children
- Plan for outdoor learning opportunities, don't let the last year's hard work disappear!

Remember to take time for yourself as you prepare for what is to come for the next school year. Stay up to date with facts and information and don't forget about the importance of keeping a consistent schedule although kids are no longer in school!
